

20260502 On One of the Many Ways We Are Being Harmed By Our Government

Before I complete the next portion of work regarding perpetual peace, I want to establish the fact pattern that has become plainly apparent in our home life under the 'watchful' evil eye of the modern American government.

As I have already been making very clear, we are being spied upon - illegally, and with a malicious and harmful intent.

The process by which the American government's illegal use of our surveillance capabilities and law enforcement capacities to harm our household is roughly described as follows:

THE MALICIOUSLY EVIL AND ILLEGAL GOVERNMENT SURVEILLANCE LOOP:

- 1: Spy upon the target to find a vulnerability or weakness in their home or life;
- 2: Use this illegally obtained information to sabotage or exacerbate the vulnerability or weakness before it can be remedied, fixed, or healed;
- 3: Taunt the target about the vulnerability or weakness in every way possible (about the existence of the vulnerability, about the inability to fix the weakness, about the damages that are occurring in their life because of the vulnerability or weakness).

This is an ongoing process that my wife and I have witnessed play out on numerous occasions now and we can define this for the public in this very specific way.

Again, as I have already stated in previous postings:

I am not imagining this level of evil. I have no intentions of causing harm to people in these ways. The only reason - absolutely only reason at all - that my mind is processing thoughts of this nature is because of the ongoing abuse that we are experiencing from the illegal actions of the American government.

My purpose in life is, and always has been, to uphold myself in a way that would be proper for anyone and everyone to follow as an example in creating a God-given good in society.

I am currently spending a very good portion of my life and time describing, publicly, an evil plot that is replicated across the world to destroy our communities and the people/families that inhabit them.

This ongoing description of the evil that is manifesting itself from inside of the American government is directly opposed to my sincerely-held religious beliefs and intentions.

I am describing to you a satanic plot from inside of the government that is being pushed out by the Freemason organization and the groups, people, and organizations that they control, puppet, or manipulate.

Be it known to you, as I continue to describe the foundations of government (as philosophically written from ancient sources), that the American government has, in fact, whether recently or continuously from its inception, turned itself toward the evil of satan for its inspiration and animation.

Such inspiration and animation is, in provable fact, opposed to the core of my God.
